7. Venue is proper in this District pursuant to 28 U.S.C. §§ 1391 and 1400 for purposes of this case, and by Aurinia’s choice of forum.

8. There is an actual and justiciable controversy between the parties as to the infringement the ’036 patent and the ’991 patent.

FACTUAL BACKGROUND

9. Upon information and belief, Aurinia is the holder of NDA No. 213716, which purportedly covers LUPKYNIS[®], voclosporin capsules.

10. An NDA must include, among others, the number of any patent that claims the “drug” or a “method of using [the] drug” for which the NDA was submitted and for which a claim of patent infringement could reasonably be asserted against an authorized party. See 21 U.S.C. § 355(b)(1), (c)(2); 21 C.F.R. § 314.53(b), (c)(2).

11. Upon approval of the NDA, the U.S. Food and Drug Administration (“FDA”) publishes patent information for the approved drug in the “Approved Drug Products with Therapeutic Equivalence Evaluations,” commonly known as the “Orange Book.” See 21 U.S.C. § 355(j)(7)(A)(iii).

12. The ’036 patent, titled “Protocol for the Treatment of Lupus Nephritis,” issued on May 14, 2019.

13. The ’991 patent, titled “Protocol for the Treatment of Lupus Nephritis,” issued on April 11, 2023.

14. Upon information and belief, Aurinia is the assignee of the ’036 and ’991 patents.

15. Upon information and belief, Aurinia caused the ’036 and ’991 patents to be listed in the Orange Book in connection with LUPKYNIS®.

16. By listing the ’036 and ’991 patents in the Orange Book, Aurinia created a reasonable apprehension that it would file a patent infringement suit against applicants seeking regulatory approval for a generic version of LUPKYNIS®.

17. DRL submitted Abbreviated New Drug Application (“ANDA”) No. 220252 (“DRL’s ANDA”) to the FDA pursuant to 21 U.S.C. § 355(j)(1) and 2(A) to obtain approval to engage in the commercial manufacture, use, and sale of voclosporin capsules, 7.9 mg (“DRL’s ANDA Product”) in the United States.

18. DRL’s ANDA contains “Paragraph IV” certifications under 21 U.S.C. § 355 5(j)(2)(A)(vii)(IV) that the claims of the ’036 and ’991 patents are invalid, unenforceable, and/or will not be infringed by the commercial manufacture, use, or sale of DRL’s ANDA Product.

19. By letter dated March 17, 2025, DRL sent written notice of DRL’s Paragraph IV Certifications pursuant to 21 U.S.C. § 355(j)(2)(B) and 21 C.F.R. § 314.95 (“DRL’s Notice Letter”). DRL’s Notice Letter asserted that the claims of the ’036 and ’991 patents are invalid, unenforceable, and/or will not be infringed by DRL’s ANDA or the product or activities described therein.

20. DRL's Notice Letter included a detailed statement of the legal and factual basis for the Paragraph IV certifications included in DRL's ANDA pursuant to 21 U.S.C. § 355(j)(2)(B)(iv)(II) and 21 C.F.R. § 314.95(c)(6).

21. Aurinia filed its Complaint against DRL on May 1, 2025, alleging infringement of the '036 and '991 patents.

22. As a consequence of the foregoing, there is an actual and justiciable controversy between DRL, on the one hand, and Aurinia, on the other hand, as to whether the claims of the '036 and '991 patents are invalid and/or unenforceable, and whether the products and/or activities described in DRL's ANDA No. 220252 infringe, induce infringement, or contribute to the infringement of any valid and enforceable claim of the '036 and '991 patents.

26. The filing of DRL's ANDA has not, does not, and will not infringe any valid or enforceable claim of the '036 patent, either directly or indirectly, and either literally or under the doctrine of equivalents.

27. The manufacture, use, or sale of DRL's Product has not, does not, and will not infringe any valid or enforceable claim of the '036 patent, either directly or indirectly, and either literally or under the doctrine of equivalents.

28. DRL has not infringed, contributed to the infringement of, or induced the infringement of any valid and enforceable claim of the '036 patent and is not liable for any alleged infringement.

29. DRL incorporates by reference DRL's Notice Letter, which contains exemplary and nonlimiting explanations for why the '036 patent is not infringed by DRL's ANDA, or the DRL ANDA Product and/or activities described therein.

30. DRL is entitled to a declaration that the manufacture, use, or sale of DRL's Product has not, does not, and will not infringe any valid or enforceable claim of the '036 patent.

Any alleged improvement over the prior art set forth in the '036 patent is not more than the predictable use of prior art elements according to their established functions. A person of skill in the art would have been motivated to combine the teachings of the prior art to achieve the alleged invention of the '036 patent and would have had a reasonable expectation of success in doing so.

37. The subject matter claimed in the '036 patent fails to comply with 35 U.S.C. § 103 in that the differences between the subject matter claimed in the patent and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the alleged invention was made to a person having knowledge of such prior art and having ordinary skill in the art to which the claimed subject matter pertains.

38. There is an actual, present, genuine, and justiciable controversy between DRL and Aurinia regarding, inter alia, the validity of all claims of the '036 patent.

Any alleged improvement over the prior art set forth in the '991 patent is not more than the predictable use of prior art elements according to their established functions. A person of skill in the art would have been motivated to combine the teachings of the prior art to achieve the alleged invention of the '991 patent and would have had a reasonable expectation of success in doing so.

56. The subject matter claimed in the '991 patent fails to comply with 35 U.S.C. § 103 in that the differences between the subject matter claimed in the patent and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the alleged invention was made to a person having knowledge of such prior art and having ordinary skill in the art to which the claimed subject matter pertains.

57. There is an actual, present, genuine, and justiciable controversy between DRL and Aurinia regarding, inter alia, the validity of all claims of the '991 patent.

58. DRL incorporates by reference DRL's Notice Letter, which contains exemplary and nonlimiting explanations for why the '991 patent is not infringed by DRL's ANDA, or the DRL ANDA Product and/or activities described therein.

59. DRL is entitled to a declaration that all claims of the '991 patent are invalid under 35 U.S.C. §§ 101, 102, 103, and/or 112, and/or other judicially-created bases for invalidity and unenforceability.

60. This case is an exceptional one, and DRL is entitled to an award of its reasonable attorneys' fees under 35 U.S.C. § 285.

PRAYER FOR RELIEF

WHEREFORE, Counterclaim-Plaintiffs DRL Pharmaceuticals Inc. and DRL Pharmaceuticals Ltd. ("DRL") respectfully request that this Court enter a Judgment and Order in its favor and against Counterclaim-Defendant Aurinia as follows:

- (a) Declaring that the filing of DRL's ANDA has not infringed and does not infringe any valid and enforceable claim of the '036 and '991 patents;
- (b) Declaring that the manufacture, use, offer to sell, sale, and/or importation in the United States of DRL's ANDA Product does not and will not infringe any valid and enforceable claim of the '036 and '991 patents;
- (c) Declaring that all claims of the '036 and '991 patents are invalid and/or unenforceable;
- (d) Awarding DRL its costs and expenses in this action;
- (e) Declaring this an exception case in favor of DRL pursuant to 35 U.S.C. § 285 and awarding DRL its reasonable attorneys' fees; and

(f) Awarding DRL any further and additional relief as the Court deems just and proper.
