NATURE OF THE ACTION

14. This is a civil action for the infringement of United States Patent Nos. 7,709,517 (“the ’517 patent”) and 11,839,689 (“the ’689 patent”) (collectively, “the Xtandi® patents”) under the Patent Laws of the United States, 35 U.S.C. § 100 et seq., arising from Qilu’s filing of ANDA No. 219140 with the United States Food and Drug Administration (“FDA”) seeking approval to market generic versions of the pharmaceutical products Xtandi® tablets, 40 and 80 mg, before the expiration of Plaintiffs’ patents covering Xtandi®.

JURISDICTION AND VENUE

15. This Court has jurisdiction over the subject matter of this action pursuant to 28 U.S.C. §§ 1331 and 1338.

16. This Court has personal jurisdiction over Qilu by virtue of the fact that, inter alia, Qilu has committed the tortious act of patent infringement pursuant to 35 U.S.C. § 271(e)(2)(A) that has led to foreseeable harm and injury to Plaintiffs in the State of Pennsylvania and throughout the United States.

17. This Court has personal jurisdiction over Qilu by virtue of the fact that Qilu is at home in Pennsylvania as reflected by the fact that, on information and belief, it regularly does or solicits business in Pennsylvania, engages in other persistent courses of conduct in Pennsylvania, and/or derives substantial revenue from services or things used or consumed in Pennsylvania, including by selling its pharmaceutical products in Pennsylvania and, therefore, can reasonably expect to be subject to jurisdiction in the Pennsylvania courts. Among other things, on information and belief, Qilu conducts marketing and sales activities in the State of Pennsylvania, including but not limited to, distribution, marketing, and sales of pharmaceutical products to Pennsylvania residents that are continuous and systematic. On information and belief, if Qilu’s ANDA

No. 219140 is approved, it will market and sell its generic versions of Xtandi® tablets in Pennsylvania.

18. This Court has personal jurisdiction over Qilu Inc. On information and belief, Qilu Inc. regularly conducts business in Pennsylvania, is incorporated in Pennsylvania, and has a principal place of business in Pennsylvania.

19. Alternatively, assuming that the above facts do not establish personal jurisdiction over Qilu Ltd., this Court may exercise jurisdiction over Qilu Ltd. pursuant to Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 4(k)(2) because (a) Plaintiffs' claims arise under federal law; (b) Qilu Ltd. is a foreign defendant not subject to general personal jurisdiction in the courts of any state; and (c) Qilu Ltd. has sufficient contacts with the United States as a whole, including but not limited to manufacturing and/or selling pharmaceutical products distributed throughout the United States, such that this Court's exercise of jurisdiction over Qilu Ltd. satisfies due process.

20. Venue is proper in this judicial district pursuant to 28 U.S.C. §§ 1391 and 1400(b).

21. Venue is proper in this Judicial District for Qilu Ltd. because, among other things, Qilu Ltd. is a foreign corporation not residing in any United States district and may be sued in any judicial district.

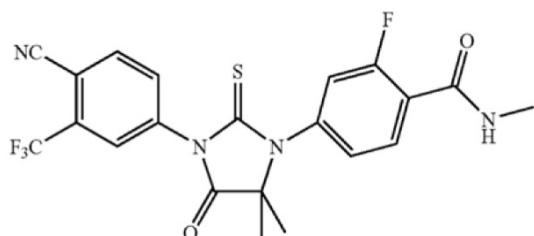

22. Venue is proper in this Judicial District for Qilu Inc. because, inter alia, Qilu Inc. is incorporated in and resides in Pennsylvania.

23. Venue is further proper in this Court as to Qilu because, among other things, Qilu has committed, or aided, abetted, contributed to, and/or participated in the commission of acts of patent infringement that will lead to foreseeable harm and injury to Plaintiffs, which manufacture Xtandi® for sale and use throughout the United States, including within the State of Pennsylvania.

25. Enzalutamide is a compound that can be referred to by any of several chemical names, including 4-{3-[4-cyano-3-(trifluoromethyl)phenyl]-5,5-dimethyl-4-oxo-2-sulfanylideneimidazolidin-1-yl}-2-fluoro-N-methylbenzamide, 4-{3-(4-cyano-3-(trifluoromethyl)phenyl)-5,5-dimethyl-4-oxo-2-thioxoimidazolidin-1-yl}-2-fluoro-N-methylbenzamide, 4-[3-[4-cyano-3-(trifluoromethyl)phenyl]-4-keto-5,5-dimethyl-2-thioxo-imidazolidin-1-yl]-2-fluoro-N-methyl-benzamide, and 4-[3-[4-cyano-3-(trifluoromethyl)phenyl]-5,5-dimethyl-4-oxo-2-sulfanylidene-1-imidazolidinyl]-2-fluoro-N-methylbenzamide, and which has the following chemical structure:

38. On information and belief, Qilu submitted ANDA No. 219140 to the FDA under § 505(j) of the Federal Food, Drug, and Cosmetic Act, seeking approval to engage in the commercial manufacture, use, and sale of Qilu's Generic Products as generic versions of Xtandi® 40 mg and 80 mg tablets.

39. On information and belief, ANDA No. 219140 seeks FDA approval of Qilu's Generic Products for the indications of treatment of castration-resistant prostate cancer, metastatic castration-sensitive prostate cancer, and non-metastatic castration-sensitive prostate cancer with biochemical recurrence at high risk for metastasis.

40. The Qilu Notice Letter also advised Astellas, Pfizer, Inc., Medivation, Inc., Medivation Prostate Therapeutics, Inc., and The Regents that Qilu's ANDA submission included certifications under 21 U.S.C. § 355(j)(2)(A)(vii)(IV) that, in Qilu's opinion, certain claims of the Xtandi® patents are invalid, unenforceable, and/or not infringed.

41. The Qilu Notice Letter does not allege non-infringement of certain claims of the '517 patent, or of any claim of the '689 patent.

42. By not identifying non-infringement defenses for certain claims of the '517 patent or any claim of the '689 patent in the Qilu Notice Letter, Qilu admits Qilu's Generic Products meet all limitations of those claims.

43. The Qilu Notice Letter does not allege invalidity under 35 U.S.C. §§ 101, 102, or 112, or unenforceability of any claim of the Xtandi® patent.

44. By not identifying invalidity defenses under 35 U.S.C. §§ 101, 102, or 112, or unenforceability defenses for the Xtandi® patents in the Qilu Notice Letter, Qilu admits the claims of the Xtandi® patents are valid under 35 U.S.C. §§ 101, 102, and 112, and are enforceable.

45. There is an actual, real, immediate, and justiciable controversy between Plaintiffs and Qilu regarding the infringement, validity, and enforceability of the Xtandi® patents.

COUNT I
(Infringement of the '517 Patent)

47. Plaintiffs incorporate each of the preceding paragraphs 1 to 46 as if fully set forth herein.

48. By submitting ANDA No. 219140 to the FDA to obtain approval under the Food, Drug, and Cosmetic Act to engage in the commercial manufacture, use, offer for sale, sale, and/or importation of Qilu's Generic Products throughout the United States, including Pennsylvania, prior to expiration of the '517 patent, Qilu committed an act of infringement of the '517 patent under 35 U.S.C. § 271(e)(2)(A).

49. The '517 patent claims, inter alia, the compound, and pharmaceutical compositions of, enzalutamide.

50. On information and belief, Qilu's Generic Products, if approved by the FDA, will contain the compound enzalutamide and/or pharmaceutical compositions thereof, which will constitute infringement of claims of the '517 patent.

51. On information and belief, Qilu's manufacture, use, sale, offer for sale, and/or importation into the United States of Qilu's Generic Products prior to the expiration of the '517 patent, including any applicable exclusivities or extensions, will directly infringe the '517 patent under 35 U.S.C. § 271(a). Qilu will infringe one or more of the claims of the '517 patent.

52. On information and belief, Qilu's Generic Products will infringe at least Claim 1 of the '517 patent which recites “[a] compound selected from the group consisting of” a group of compounds including enzalutamide. On information and belief, Qilu's Generic Products will infringe Claim 1 of the '517 patent because Qilu's Generic Products will contain enzalutamide.

53. On information and belief, Qilu was aware of the existence of the '517 patent and its listing in the Orange Book as demonstrated by Qilu's reference to the '517 patent in the Qilu Notice Letter.

54. On information and belief, Qilu copied the claimed invention of the '517 patent.

55. On information and belief, Qilu knows or should know that its commercial manufacture, use, offer for sale, sale, and/or importation of Qilu's Generic Products prior to patent expiry will infringe one or more claims of the '517 patent.

56. On information and belief, Qilu's statement of the factual and legal bases for its opinions regarding non-infringement and invalidity of the '517 patent is devoid of an objective good faith basis in either the facts or the law. This case is exceptional.

57. Plaintiffs will be substantially and irreparably harmed by the infringing activities described above unless those activities are precluded by this Court. Plaintiffs have no adequate remedy at law.

COUNT II
(Infringement of the '689 Patent)

58. Plaintiffs incorporate each of the preceding paragraphs 1 to 57 as if fully set forth herein.

59. By submitting ANDA No. 219140 to the FDA to obtain approval under the Food, Drug, and Cosmetic Act to engage in the commercial manufacture, use, offer for sale, sale, and/or importation of Qilu's Generic Products throughout the United States, including Pennsylvania, prior to expiration of the '689 patent, Qilu committed an act of infringement of the '689 patent under 35 U.S.C. § 271(e)(2)(A).

60. The '689 patent claims, inter alia, pharmaceutical compositions of enzalutamide. Claim 1 recites "a pharmaceutical composition comprising a solid dispersion consisting essentially of amorphous enzalutamide and hydroxypropyl methylcellulose acetate succinate” (“HPMCAS”).

Certain dependent claims specify that the formulation is a tablet.

61. The formulation of Xtandi® tablets, 40 and 80 mg, contains a pharmaceutical composition comprising a solid dispersion consisting essentially of amorphous enzalutamide and HPMCAS. The formulation of Xtandi® tablets, 40 and 80 mg, is covered by the '689 patent.

62. The Qilu Notice Letter does not dispute infringement of any claim of the '689 patent.

63. On information and belief, Qilu copied the claimed invention of the '689 patent.

64. On information and belief, Qilu was not required to copy claimed invention of the '689 patent or the Xtandi® tablets formulation.

65. On information and belief, Qilu's Generic Products, if approved by the FDA, will contain a pharmaceutical composition comprising a solid dispersion consisting essentially of amorphous enzalutamide and HPMCAS, which will constitute infringement of at least one claim of the '689 patent.

66. On information and belief, Qilu's manufacture, use, sale, offer for sale, and/or importation into the United States of Qilu's Generic Products prior to the expiration of the '689 patent, including any applicable exclusivities or extensions, will directly infringe the '689 patent under 35 U.S.C. § 271(a) either literally or under the doctrine of equivalents. Qilu will infringe one or more of the claims of the '689 patent.

67. On information and belief, Qilu was aware of the existence of the '689 patent and its listing in the Orange Book as demonstrated by Qilu's reference to the '689 patent in the Qilu Notice Letter.

68. On information and belief, Qilu knows or should know that its commercial manufacture, use, offer for sale, sale, and/or importation of Qilu's Generic Products prior to patent expiry will infringe one or more claims of the '689 patent.

69. On information and belief, Qilu's statement of the factual and legal bases for its opinions regarding non-infringement and invalidity of the '689 patent is devoid of an objective good faith basis in either the facts or the law. This case is exceptional.

70. Plaintiffs will be substantially and irreparably harmed by the infringing activities described above unless those activities are precluded by this Court. Plaintiffs have no adequate remedy at law.

A permanent injunction under 35 U.S.C. §§ 271(e)(4)(B) and/or 283 restraining and enjoining Qilu, its officers, agents, servants, and employees, and those persons in active concert or participation with any of them, from engaging in the commercial manufacture, use, offer for sale, sale in, and/or importation into the United States of Qilu's Generic Products prior to the expiration date of United States Patent Nos. 7,709,517 and 11,839,689, inclusive of any extensions;

D. An order under 35 U.S.C. § 271(e)(4)(A) that the effective date of any FDA approval of ANDA No. 219140 under Section 505(j) of the Federal Food, Drug, and Cosmetic Act (21 U.S.C. § 355(j)) shall be a date that is not earlier than the expiration date of United States Patent Nos. 7,709,517 and 11,839,689, inclusive of any extensions;
