Dexcel's ANDA

28. By letter dated September 29, 2023, and received by Pfizer on or around October 2, 2023 (the "Dexcel Notice Letter"), Dexcel notified Pfizer that it had submitted ANDA No. 218668 to the FDA, seeking approval under the Federal Food, Drug and Cosmetic Act to market and sell Dexcel Generic XR Tablets—generic copies of Xeljanz XR (tofacitinib citrate EQ 11 mg and 22 mg base extended-release tablets)—prior to the expiration of the RE'783 patent.

29. The Dexcel Notice Letter describes the Dexcel Generic XR Tablets as "tofacitinib, extended release tablet, 11 mg, 22 mg."

30. The Dexcel Notice Letter states that Dexcel has filed ANDA No. 218668 seeking approval to "engage in the commercial manufacture, use, or sale" of Dexcel Generic XR Tablets prior to the expiration of the RE'783 patent.

31. The Dexcel Notice Letter asserts that ANDA No. 218668 contains a Paragraph IV certification under 21 U.S.C. § 355(j)(2)(A) alleging that the RE'783 patent is "invalid, unenforceable, and/or will not be infringed by the manufacture, use, or sale" of Dexcel Generic XR Tablets.

32. Attached to the Dexcel Notice Letter was Dexcel's Detailed Statement of the Factual and Legal Bases for Dexcel Pharma Technologies Ltd.'s Opinion that United States Patent

Nos. RE41,783; 9,937,181; 10,639,309 and 11,253,523 Are Invalid, Unenforceable and/or Will Not Be Infringed (“Dexcel’s Detailed Statement”) asserting, among other things, the purported factual and legal bases for Dexcel’s contention that the claims of the RE’783 patent are invalid, unenforceable and/or will not be infringed by the commercial manufacture, use, sale, or offer for sale in the United States or importation into the United States of Dexcel Generic XR Tablets.

33. Dexcel’s Detailed Statement alleges that all claims of the RE’783 patent are invalid. Dexcel’s Detailed Statement does not contain a noninfringement argument with respect to the RE’783 patent.

34. On information and belief, upon approval of ANDA No. 218668, Dexcel will sell and distribute Dexcel Generic XR Tablets in the United States.

COUNT I
(Infringement of the RE’783 Patent by Dexcel Generic XR Tablets)

35. The allegations of paragraphs 1-34 above are repeated and re-alleged as if set forth fully herein.

36. Pursuant to 35 U.S.C. § 271(e)(2)(A), Dexcel’s filing of ANDA No. 218668 seeking approval to market and sell Dexcel Generic XR Tablets before the expiration of the RE’783 patent was an act of infringement of at least claim 4 of the RE’783 patent, entitling Pfizer to the relief provided by 35 U.S.C. § 271(e)(4), including, inter alia, an order of this Court that the effective date of approval for ANDA No. 218668 be a date which is not earlier than the expiration date of the RE’783 patent.

37. Dexcel had knowledge of the RE’783 patent when it submitted ANDA No. 218668 to the FDA.

38. On information and belief, upon FDA approval of ANDA No 218668, Dexcel intends to engage in the manufacture, use, offer for sale, sale, and/or importation of Dexcel Generic

XR Tablets in the United States and will thereby directly infringe at least claim 4 of the RE'783 patent under 35 U.S.C. § 271(a).

39. The foregoing actions by Dexcel constitute and/or would constitute infringement of at least claim 4 of the RE'783 patent.

40. Pfizer will be substantially and irreparably harmed if Dexcel is not enjoined from infringing the RE'783 patent. Pfizer has no adequate remedy at law.

PRAYER FOR RELIEF

WHEREFORE, Pfizer requests the following relief:

- A. A judgment that Dexcel's submission of ANDA No. 218668 was an act of infringement and that Dexcel's making, using, offering to sell, selling, or importing Dexcel Generic XR Tablets in the United States prior to the expiration of the RE'783 patent will directly infringe that patent;
- B. A judgment that the effective date of any FDA approval for Dexcel to make, use, offer for sale, sell, market, distribute, or import Dexcel Generic XR Tablets into the United States be no earlier than the date on which the RE'783 patent expires, or the later expiration of any exclusivity to which Pfizer is or becomes entitled;
- C. A permanent injunction enjoining Dexcel, its officers, agents, servants, and employees, and those persons in active concert or participation with any of them, from making, using, selling, offering for sale, marketing, distributing, or importing Dexcel Generic XR Tablets into the United States, and from inducing or contributing to any of the foregoing, prior to the expiration of the RE'783 patent, or the later expiration of any exclusivity to which Pfizer is or becomes entitled;

- D. A judgment that this case is an exceptional case under 35 U.S.C. § 285, entitling Pfizer to an award of its reasonable attorneys' fees for bringing and prosecuting this action;
- E. An award of Pfizer's costs and expenses in this action; and
- F. Such further and additional relief as this Court deems just and proper.
